Konko Daijin says... "It is said that an unpolished gem doesn't sparkle and is like an ordinary stone. One who practices faith must polish the gem in one's heart. Even ordinary steel can be polished to gleam like silver. Gold and silver as well, without polishing, won't shine. Man is the lord of all living things. Polish the gem in your heart and conduct yourself well in everything. Otherwise, people won't respect you, even if you think you're practicing faith. It is because of your self-centered faith." (Gorikai I Yamamoto Sadajiro 53-2,3)

Editor's thoughts: In Konkokyo belief, all living things are born pure and innocent. We are not a product of sin, and we are not sinned when we are born. However, if we do not continue to practice faith, our once gleaming hearts will become tarnished. We need to face our hearts towards Kami, always, so our hearts will be clean. Everyone can appreciate a clean heart.

Sunday School Oath

I will advance my faith through understanding the Founder's teachings and will strive to become a more useful person to society.

Sincerity is the essence of my faith, and its basic principles are courtesy, kindness, and devotion in everything I do.

Happy Father's Day

Dad is strong
A teddy bear at heart
Dad is a pillar of support

Editor's Note

Dear Reader,

There are not enough words for me to express my experiences last month, than to say, "Wow!" Pictures are worth a thousand words, so you can see how busy and amazing our month was in May (Wedding pictures taken by Masaki Photography). Just a couple of things I wanted to add here. "Happiness is the foundation of everything." Without happiness, we cannot concentrate and get things done well. Without happiness, we cannot be healthy. Without happiness, we are not considered to be truly rich. Congratulations to my big brother, Rodney and Fong! They just got married on May 3rd!! Wishing them happiness and prosperity forever and for always. Wishing them days full of laughter, support and love.

Our Summer Ohana Camp will be held from June 21-22 (Sat and Sun) at Camp HR Erdman. Our cabins are reserved and final counts confirmed! Detailed information will be sent to all attendees. Thank you for helping to sell the Zippy's fundraiser tickets and for your very generous donations for the Summer Ohana Camp! I will keep you posted on the camp in July's Children's Newsletter. Have a great month in June! OMG, we are already halfway into the year. So fast. Take care!

Aloha, Edna Yano

Congratulations Rodney and Fong!
