Konko Daijin says... Practice faith (Shinjin). Shin means your heart, and jin means Kami. Practicing faith means you direct your heart toward Kami. Though you are surrounded by divine virtue, you won't receive blessings unless you have faith. (Gorikai I Ichimura Mitsugoro 1-10-1)

Editor's thoughts: There are people who misunderstand the teachings of Konkokyo and think that since this whole world is basically the body of Kami-Sama, they need not take that extra time to go to church. All the while we might think that we have faith if we have the basic belief that we are surrounded by divine blessings. Practicing faith incorporates attending church events and listening to teachings. Although the whole world may be a dojo (training arena) for faith, our faith will not grow if we are not exposed to teachings and do not practice them in our daily life. It's like people who go to regular karate practice. Their skill level is way higher than people who know karate in just theory. The same is true for faith.

Sunday School Oath

I will advance my faith through understanding the Founder's teachings and will strive to become a more useful person to society.

Sincerity is the essence of my faith, and its basic principles are courtesy, kindness, and devotion in everything I do.

Konko Mission of Wahiawa 80th Anniversary Sunday, March 15, 2020 Theme: Konnichi Made No Onrei

"Thank you for the blessings till today"
